Members of the Credit Union elect a Board of Directors annually to determine policies.

Since its organization in April, 1954 the Credit Union has become a vital part of the college.

The Aquinas College Credit Union under the management of Mr. Bert J. Kelley served faculty, students, and alumni. Through the years the Credit Union has become the financial center of the college. Constantly improving its facilities and adding new services the Credit Union has increased its membership and importance to the college.

The Credit Union staff is composed of Mr. Kelley, Mr. Joseph Hansknecht, President; Mr. Marin, Treasurer;

AQUINAS AWARD

Monsignor Bukowski presents the Aquinas Award to Lynn A. Ferguson, M.D.

The third annual Aquinas Award was presented to Lynn A. Ferguson, M.D. on March 7, the Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, in the College Chapel. The Reverend Thomas A. Hennessy, O.P. gave the opening remarks after which The Right Reverend Monsignor Arthur F. Bukowski presented the award to Dr. Ferguson.

The presentation was followed by a reception in the first-floor library of the college. Later a dinner in honor of Dr. Ferguson was held in the College Dining Room.

STUDENT
MEETING

The Senate debates if the THOMIST should be given financial aid.

The Student Senate is the student governing body of Aquinas College, its members being made up of the officers of each class and the representatives of the various clubs and organizations.

The Senate discusses student problems and activities and works closely with the administration in defining regulations and in outlining the proper form of procedure for classes and organizations. It represents the entire student body and strives to promote better student-teacher relations.

A good turn-out for the meeting.

THIRD ORDER

Under the direction of Fr. John Donahue, O.P. the Third Order of Saint Dominic is an active part of the religious life of Aquinas students. The Chapter, as a group, supports the annual Rosary Convocation and convenes for monthly meetings during which Compline is recited. The individual members of the Third Order strive for religious betterment by reciting daily either the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin or the Rosary.

The officials are Prior, Elmer DesPres; Sub-Prior, Thomas Osbourne; Novice Mistress, Mary Ellen McDonald; Novice Master, David Thomasma, and Treasurer, Leonard Skrycki.

Activities include an annual trip (this year to New York), a skating party, a picnic, and the Convocation Ball.

Recitation of Compline in the College Chapel.

Reception into the Third Order.

Workshop at the Rosary Convocation.

Third Annual Rosary Convocation at the Pantlind Hotel.

The Annual Inaugural Ball, opening the festivities for Gala Week-end, was held this year in the Ballroom of the Pantlind Hotel. The dance and the Carnival carried out the theme that Aquinas is a unique College.

Lew Allen and his orchestra furnished the music for a wonderful evening climaxed by the coronation of Elemer Despres and Mary Busch as King and Queen by the Rev. Thomas Hennessey.

HOMECOMING

The first homecoming of extensive scope and activity centering around the Aquinas-Calvin basketball game took place the weekend of January 28, 1961. Judy Martin, selected as Queen by the Varsity Club, and her court composed of Sandra Earl, Carol Duba, Maureen Carey, and Valerie Burkard were presented during intermission at the game.

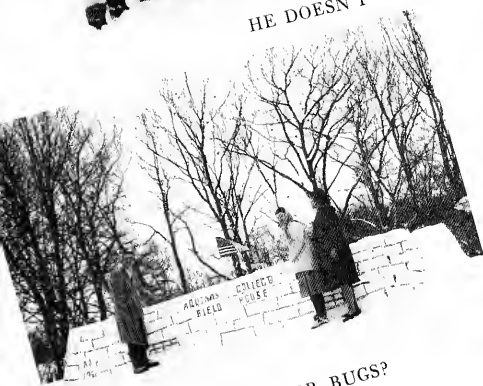

A snow sculpturing contest was held immediately before the game on the college campus. After Queen Judy selected the winning entry, a car caravan drove to Burton Gym.

The formal Homecoming Dance was held at Blythefield Country Club.

AQUINAS COLLEGE

—PRESENTS—

Sister Mary deChantal, who directed MEDEA, did a magnificent job in presenting a difficult play. A tragedy presents certain production problems and the fact that it was a success reflects Sister deChantal's knowledge and understanding of play production, as well as her good taste.

Congratulations, Sister!

MEDEA was not an easy play for an untrained college group to master; it was certainly not an easy play for them to discharge--with just the right intensity of emotion--at an equally untrained audience, yet all who saw it said it was a great success. Technically, the play held problems too. The lighting effects called for rapid and subtle changes, and the set was a challenge to ingenuity.

The musical effects added much to the mood of the play, and the women's costumes enhanced the pictorial beauty of the production.

There was a long list of Aquinas students working on this year's production whom we cannot list here. For their generous and cheerful cooperation we are most grateful; of their efficient and intelligent service to their college, we are most proud.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League, composed of all women students attending Aquinas College on a full time basis, has as its purpose the promotion of a cooperative and friendly spirit among its members. One of its functions is the outfitting and financing of the cheerleaders and women's tennis team. In the last few years, the Women's League has sponsored a Spring Tea for the mutual enjoyment of the women faculty members and the students.

This year's officers include President, Mary Busch, Vice-President, Mary Ellen McDonald, Secretary, Kathy Duba and Treasurer, Mary De Pauw.

MEN'S UNION

The Men's Union is a campus organization meant to represent the Aquinas male student body at important school meetings and activities.

Besides representing the male student corp the Union lends its support to other projects such as the school play, Circles, and the Homecoming.

This year's officers include President, Dennis Ignasias; Vice-President George Tilton; Secretary Dale Tithof, and Treasurer Robert Smith.

Ever been to the third floor of the gym??

This year the mens' gym class took on a new look as Mr. Pete Bishop, Director, introduced a more balanced program. In addition to the usual activities of badminton, table tennis, and basketball were added calisthenics, football, and road work.

These varied types of activities provide for a more complete program of physical education, and have resulted in greater student interest.

MEN'S GYM CLASS

Mrs. Theodora H. Segar

Director of women's physical education classes at Aquinas College.

Under the direction of Mrs. Theodora Segar, the women's physical education classes are designed to provide the student with a well-balanced program for physical fitness.

The girls participate in team sports such as basketball, volleyball, tennis and badminton.

Special classes are devoted to folk and square dancing where the girls learn the fundamental calls and sets.

Each year a table tennis tournament is held with competition among the various classes.

TV WORKSHOP

Under the direction of Sister Mary DeChantal, O.P., the TV Workshop was most successful this year. After attending an eight week course in television production at WOOD-TV with students from other colleges, the members of the workshop then set to work writing and staging their shows.

The first show was entitled "The Eternal Problem of Educating the Whole Man." The second show this year is an account of the events leading up to the Civil War, while a third show, dealing with Philosophy and Art, is also being planned.

Under Sr. DeChantal's direction, the workshop could only be successful.

Chris admires the sign announcing the first production over WOOD-TV.

The genial Chuck Leipham, producer from WOOD-TV and workshop photographer.

The first production of Aquinas College on College Omnibus was a half-hour presentation focusing on the college and its role in educating the whole man. Many weeks and countless meetings went into the final format of the show, while the assistance of Mr. Charles Leipham of WOOD-TV proved most valuable. Finally, on Saturday, March 4, the efforts of the workshop were realized as they viewed the video tape of their show while it was televised over a wide area of the state. Then they went to work writing the remaining two shows which would be presented in coming weeks.

The Workshop is especially grateful to Rev. Adrian English, O.P., Rev. John Donahue, O.P., Sr. Mary Lois, O.P., Sr. Mary Norbert, O.P., Mr. Lewis Clingman, Mr. Eugene Smith, and Mr. Edward Owens for their cooperation and assistance in the production of the first show, as well as the many students who took time to be in the classroom and choral scenes.

Coach Ray Null

S P O R T S

This year Aquinas College enjoyed one of its most successful seasons. Considering the calibre of the teams it faced, the basketball team came through in fine fashion. Coach Ray Null brought some new faces to the campus this year including Tom Williamson, Jim Kanary and Ray Bauer. The teamwork of the players became evident as players hit the double figures of the scoring column in game after game, and the victories far outnumbered the losses.

High points of the season occurred at the first game with Northern Michigan, a nationally ranked college, when the Tomies lost by only one point, and the great battle which the team showed at the Calvin game before losing in the final minutes.

Congratulations to the coach and team for a fine and thrilling season.

Aquinas Herald

Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, Michigan, September 28, 1960

1961 marks the 25th anniversary of the publication of the Aquinas Herald. The predecessor of the present Herald, the Catholic Junior Herald, begun in 1935, was renamed the Aquinas Herald on September 27, 1940. For a quarter of a century the Herald has faithfully informed the student body of news around the campus. The Herald has been and will continue to be a vital and stimulating force on the Aquinas Campus.

The Aquinas Herald With 25 Years of Distinguished Service Offers Everyone

Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors

An opportunity to fill a responsible position on this college's largest and liveliest publication.

An opportunity to serve and to learn on a newspaper with 25 years in this field.

An opportunity to work with experienced college reporters and editors.

So if you can type, write, draw or sell

Or if you want to _____

WEEKLY

The Aquinas Weekly serves as a ready source of current facts and information, as well as an outlet for activity promotion. Presented in an informal manner, the Weekly, now in its second year, activates student opinion, promotes club and social functions, and provides facts about current and future campus events.

The Weekly fulfills a special need for relaxed student expression and fills the interim between the monthly Herald Editions, with points of interest for thought and comment.

Volume XIII of The Thomist, (1961) owes its success (if any) to a small but dedicated staff. This "select" staff took the majority of the pictures, developed and printed them, laid out the pages, typed the copy, and then chased the Greyhound Bus down the street to get the pages to the printers on time.

Special thanks must go to those students who helped in this work. Miss Gertrude M. Horgan, advisor, kept the staff "constantly" informed of the deadlines and without her supervision The Thomist would still be in the planning stage.

Other staff members, who helped beat-off the ever present threat of the deadline, were Margaret Shoup, Mary Shoup, Mary Welniak, Geraldine Lurtz, Mary Cleary, Jim Crivello, and Pat Marshall.

Additional thanks go to Universal Studios for their fine service on the underclassmen and senior pictures and to our printers, Edward Brothers and their representative Mr. Jack Cobb for his advise.

Miss Horgan takes to gambling to raise money for the Thomist.

AQUINAS CHORUS

Under the able direction of Edward J. Owens, the Aquinas Choral group contributes its talents to many college functions. This year's activities included a Christmas Concert at the Ladies' Literary Club, an appearance on the TV College Omnibus, the singing of Carnevali's Mass "Missa Redimisti" at the Honor Convocation Mass, and the singing of the St. Thomas Hymn and Te Deum at the presentation of the Aquinas Award.

Its largest undertaking this year is the presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury," to be presented early in May. Through the years, the group has grown in size and ability, and plays a chief role in many Aquinas functions.

HONORS CONVOCATION

On March 7, the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, the annual Honors Convocation was held at St. Thomas' Church.

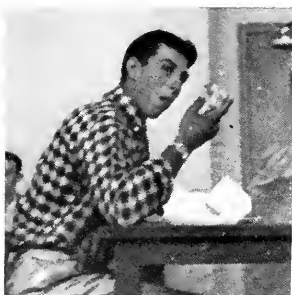

Father Francis Regan, O.P. gave a brief sermon. After the Solemn Mass Monsignor Bukowski, President, announced the names of students who achieved honors standing during the last two semesters.

GAMMA ALPHA PI

The motto of the Gamma Alpha Pi Music Society is "Gradus ad Parnassum" which means "Always striving for the highest!! Officers this year are Camille Truszkowski, Gregory Leestma, and Carol Weatherman.

SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM

The Social Science Forum is an organization open to all students interested in discussing topics of current interest. Sister Marie, O.P. is the faculty chairman.

BUSINESS CLUB

DELTA SIGMA

The Business Club governed by a Board of Directors is headed by Lewis Peck Green, Chairman. The objectives of this group are to promote a general interest in and understanding of modern business and all the related fields, as well as to encourage a spirit of mutual cooperation and helpfulness among members of this group.

ENGINEERS' CLUB

Officers for this year's Engineer's Club are Fred Hesse, President, James Hand, Secretary, Dan Jaskiewicz, Treasurer, and Karl Paganelli, Vice-President.

Formed in 1957 the Engineer's Club seeks to arouse interest and enthusiasm among the engineering students.

CERCLE FRANCAIS

The French Club is an active organization composed of students taking courses in French. Besides sponsoring a booth during Gala Weekend and observing National Language Week, the club also tries to promote interest in French culture through lectures and films.

The faculty director is Sister Mary Norbert, and this year's officers include President, Maureen Carey; Vice-President, Joann Viale; Secretary, Mary Lou Smith; and Treasurer, Leo Otte.

LAMBDA IOTA TAU

Lambda Iota Tau is a national literary society, open to English or language majors or minors who maintain a "B" average.

This year Lambda has sponsored public lectures on Existentialism, the influence of Freudian Psychology on Literature, and Gestalt Psychology.

Carol Duba is President and Patricia Marshall Secretary - Treasurer.

BOWLING LEAGUE

Every Wednesday afternoon the members of the bowling league meet at the East Recreation lanes for an afternoon of fun and competition. Faculty members and students alike have the opportunity to take time out from their work and engage in spirited rivalry.

The bowling league climaxes its season with a banquet at which trophies are awarded for the best performances.

Officers are: Louis Wieber, Ken Parker, Bonnie Bollman and Jim Hojnacki.

VARSITY CLUB

This year's officers of the Varsity Club are Dick Maurer, Jim O'Hara and Pete Rutledge. The purpose of the Varsity Club is to encourage college athletics. Their activities included the sponsoring of the Homecoming Dance and the arrangements for buses to take students to the out-of-town games.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club sets forth these objectives:

1. To promote greater interest in the field of biology.
2. To raise funds for the purchase of departmental equipment.
3. To make available a more social and educational program to all students.

This year's officers include President, Robert Klein; Vice-President, William O'Brien; Secretary, Patricia Geer, and Treasurer, Bonnie Billman.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club, in its five years of existence under the direction of Dr. Werner W. Prange, has been one of the most active on campus. Its aims include a greater understanding of the Germanic peoples and their customs as well as providing a social life for its members.

Its activities this year included the sponsorship of "Old Heidelberg" at Gala Weekend, a Christmas party, an annual banquet, and a German film.

Officers for the first semester included President, Mary Cleary; Vice-President, Rose Marie Hanks; Secretary, Merlin Fritzen, and Treasurer, Lee Jacques.

EDUCATION CLASSES

Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta TRIAL BY JURY has been selected by the Music Department of Aquinas College for presentation sometime early this May. Director Edward J. Owens reports that roles have been cast and rehearsals show great promise, indicating that this presentation should be a credit to the Music Department. In cooperation with Mr. Owens Sister Mary de Chantal, O.P. is working with the students on staging.

At the time this edition of the THOMIST went to press the production was still in its early stages as the pictures on this page indicate. We are anticipating seeing the operetta with all its embellishments.

RETREAT

A film on St. Dominic was shown in the library.

Rev. Francis Regan, O.P.

Rev. Norbert Reynolds, O.P.

Rev. Henry O'Brien, O.P.

The Junior and Senior men listen. . . .

as Father O'Brien speaks of the four "C's".

The annual Retreat was held this year on March 8-9 and 10, in addition to the two retreats held the previous two weekends.

This year the men's retreat was held in the Administration Building rather than in the fieldhouse as in previous years. Room 303 was the chapel for the Junior and Senior men, while the Music Hall was transformed into a chapel for the Freshmen and Sophomore men. The Chapel on the second floor was once again the scene of the women's retreat.

This year's retreat Masters were The Rev. Henry O'Brien, O.P., The Rev. Norbert Reynolds, O.P., and The Rev. Francis Regan, O.P.

Father Reynolds celebrates Mass for the Freshmen and Sophomore men.

At the Men's retreat, Fr. O'Brien emphasized the four "C's" - Contrition, Confession, Communion and Commandments. Father Reynolds, who alternated between the two chapels with Fr. O'Brien, stressed the importance of reaching heaven as our goal, and our only goal, here on earth.

Father Regan, in his conferences at the women's retreat, emphasized the power of the Rosary in man's long journey to attain salvation. His talks were designed to instill into his listeners a love and devotion for the Holy Rosary and the Blessed Mother.

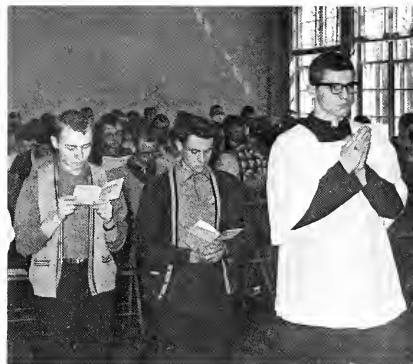

At the conclusion of the retreat, the Papal Blessing was given as prayers were recited for the Holy Father.

Father Regan holds Benediction at the women's retreat.

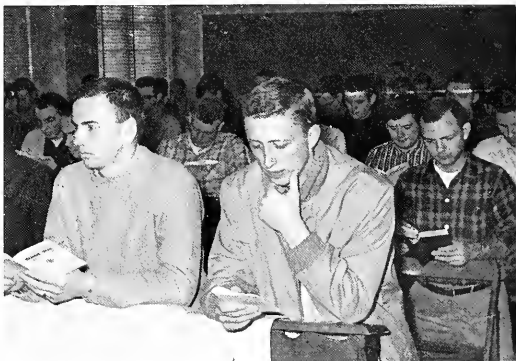

The conferences of the Retreat Master hold the attention of the women.

Stations of the Cross at the men's retreat.

Father Reynolds begins his talk with an allegory.

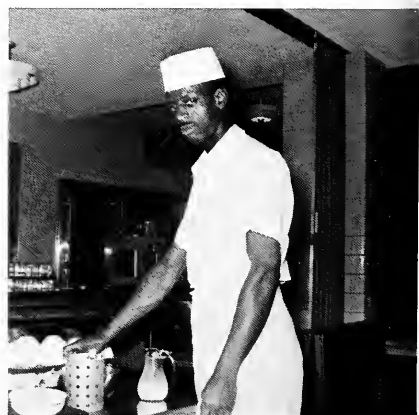

The Dialogue Mass according to the Dominican Rite is recited by the men at their retreat.

CAFETERIA STAFF

As always, the cafeteria has been the refuge of the students whether in need of conversation or coffee. Each day the pleasant odor of food issues from the cafeteria doors, signifying that another delicious meal is ready.

Under the able direction of genial manager Ron Warfield of Saga Foods Inc., and assisted by Jerry DeBoer, James Wade, Mrs. Ann Westveer and Mrs. Peg Doornbos, the Aquinas cafeteria continues its policy of fine foods and friends
